

San Juan 21 Class Association Constitution

Article I: NAME

The name of this organization shall be the San Juan 21 Class Association hereinafter called Association or Class.

Article II: EMBLEM

The emblem of the Class shall be a square "S" with a square "J" under the bottom half and number "21" upper right as indicated on the official sail plan.

Article III: PURPOSE

The purpose of the Association shall be to:

1. Promote San Juan 21 boat ownership and sailing throughout North America.
2. Promote San Juan 21 Class racing under uniform rules and between boats of identical design
3. Exercise jurisdiction over all Class activities and to enforce its Constitution, By-laws, and Specifications upon all class members and fleets of the Association.

Article IV: POLICY

It is the policy of the Association:

1. To cooperate with other yachting organizations and to demand in return observance of the San Juan 21 Class rules.
2. To rigidly maintain the one-design features of the San Juan 21 Class sloops, as designed by Don Clark, to insure that all San Juan 21 Class racing shall be to determine the skill of the skipper and crew. The Constitution, By-laws, and Specifications shall be interpreted to insure competition between boats of identical design. To keep the cost of acquisition and maintenance of the San Juan 21 sloops within modest limits without sacrificing high standards of performance, seaworthiness, safety, and convenience.
3. To encourage current owners to include in the sale price of any San Juan 21 boat sold the Association dues for the new owner(s) and to forward said dues and the name(s) and address(es) of the new owner(s) to the Association Secretary/Treasurer.

Article V: ORGANIZATION

1. The Association shall consist of three (3) territorial Districts, East, Mid-west, and West
 1. The Eastern District shall be the states east of the Mississippi River including the Canadian provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, and Labrador.
 2. The Western District shall be the states west of New Mexico, Colorado, Nebraska, and North & South Dakota and include the Canadian provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, and Saskatchewan.
 3. The Mid-west District shall be the states and provinces in between the other two Districts.
2. Units within each District shall be known as "Fleets"
3. Any three or more owners of San Juan 21 sailboats, who are members of the Association, may be granted a Fleet Charter upon application to the Association and upon payment of such charges as may be fixed from time to time by the Executive Committee.
4. The Executive Committee shall designate the geographical area included within each Fleet's territory, and to increase or decrease said territory from time-to-time as may be required for the orderly growth and development of the Association.

5. Each Fleet shall be self-governing in all matters not conflicting with the Association. Each Fleet shall elect officers and designate a "Fleet Captain" who shall be an Active Member of the Class as the official liaison between the Fleet and the Association.
6. Fleet Charters may be suspended or revoked for due cause and Fleet jurisdiction may be re-designated at the discretion of the Executive Committee.
7. Application for membership in the Association shall be made through a local Fleet. If Fleet membership is impracticable, application shall be made directly with the Association Secretary/Treasurer.
8. The powers of the Association shall be vested in the Governing Board.

Article VI: JURISDICTION.

The Association has jurisdiction over all San Juan 21 activities. Its Constitution, By-Laws, Rulings, and Specifications are binding upon all members and Fleets, and govern all sanctioned San Juan 21 races regardless of the identity of the sanctioning organization. All registered boats shall conform to official plans and specifications.

Article VIII: DUES

The Association shall set forth the amount of the membership dues in the By-laws. Fleets may determine their own dues structures. All assessed dues shall be paid before a Member or Fleet can be in good standing with the Association.

Article IX: MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Association shall consist of three (3) types: Active, Associate, and Junior as follows:

1. An Active Member shall be an owner or co-owner of a San Juan 21 boat. An Active Member is privileged to hold office, to vote, and to skipper a San Juan 21 boat in accordance with the By-laws.
2. An Associate Member shall not be an owner but an interested person, who may also crew occasionally on a specific San Juan 21 boat, may skipper in any sanctioned race or regatta but cannot vote or hold office. The immediate family of an Active Member shall be considered an Associate Member.
3. A Junior member shall not have reached their 19th birthday before the end of the calendar year in which they are a Junior Member. Junior Members shall have all the privileges of an Associate Member.

Article X: OFFICERS

The officers of the San Juan 21 Class Association and their respective duties shall be as follows:

1. The National COMMODORE shall be the chief executive and preside at meetings, serve as chair of the Executive Committee and Governing Board, rule on procedure and jurisdiction, summarize decisions, appoint committee members, authorize payment of expenses, and appoint members to fill vacancies as needed.
2. The VICE COMMODORES, EAST, MIDWEST and WEST shall be elected from the areas represented by their constituencies: They shall serve on the Executive Committee, and shall assume such responsibilities as may be delegated them by the National Commodore or the Governing Board.
3. The SECRETARY/TREASURER shall record the minutes of the Association, the Governing Board and the Executive Committee; see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws; be custodian of the Association records, funds, and securities; keep a list of the addresses and sail numbers of members, and receive and give receipts for money due and payable to the Association, and deposit such money in the name of the Association in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Executive Committee may select.

4. The CHIEF MEASURER (CM) shall be the custodian of and interpret the Plans and Specifications of the Association in accordance with the intention of the Constitution and By-laws. When ruling on questions not specifically addressed in the Plans and Specifications, the Executive Committee shall concur before the ruling becomes binding. Such rulings may be appealed to the Governing Board. The CM may issue measurement certificates and enforce eligibility of a boat to participate in a sanctioned race or regatta. Eligibility enforcement at regattas where the CM cannot attend shall be accomplished through a member in attendance appointed by the CM to act on such matters. Appeals on eligibility shall go first to the Executive Committee and finally to the Governing Board.
5. The EDITOR shall have general responsibility for all matters concerning publicity and communications including print and electronic media.
6. Other officers may be appointed by the National Commodore with the concurrence of the Executive Committee.
7. Officers shall serve a one year term beginning 1 January. The officers shall also serve as a nominating committee for their successors. Officers may serve more than one successive term.
8. The Nominating Committee shall propose a slate of officers each year no later than 15 November. The Editor shall make the slate known to the Class members via whatever means available to assure the membership has been notified.
9. Any person may petition the Nominating Committee to have an Active Member considered for a Class Officer position. The Nominating Committee shall contact all nominees before placing them on a slate for consideration.
10. The Vice Commodores shall poll the Governing Board for a vote on the proposed slate of candidates for office, reporting the results to the Secretary/Treasurer no later than 15 December.
11. The National Commodore, and three Vice Commodores shall be elected. The other officers shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the National Commodore. The amount of any compensation for these appointed positions shall be fixed by the Executive Committee.
12. An Active Member may hold only one office (elected or appointed) at a time.

Article XI: GOVERNING BOARD and EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

1. The Executive Committee shall conduct the day-to-day affairs of the Association including among other activities sanctioning races, granting and suspending Fleet Charters, and concurring with the appointments of the National Commodore.
2. The Executive Committee shall consist of the National commodore as Chair, the three Vice Commodores, and the immediate past Commodore no longer in office. The Secretary/Treasurer, Chief Measurer, Editor and others appointed by the National Commodore shall serve as ex officio members.
3. The Governing Board shall consist of the Executive Committee and the Fleet Captains for all the fleets in good standing.
4. The Governing Board shall determine the policy of the Association and serve as the last court of appeal in disputes involving Association rights. Its rulings shall be binding and final.
5. Fleet Captains shall cast Governing Board votes reflecting the majority view of their respective fleet members.
